

Allen J Kapusta

July 14, 1951 - November 5, 2024

Allen J. Kapusta, 73, formerly of Chicago's Uptown neighborhood and of Elmhurst, passed away peacefully November 5, 2024.

Allen graduated from Illinois Institute of Technology and worked as a Computer Consultant.

Allen largely kept to himself. He was gentle giant who liked Comi-con, gadgets and gizmos, the Olympics, and 3-D printing. He was a good investor, although he also really liked buying things on Amazon. Allen also had binders of mysterious alphabetized passwords and multiple Alexa systems in his home, which made things very interesting. He participated in bingo and trivia, enjoyed snacks, juice, and root beer, and sang along to army songs. He also said that his last name was Slovak for "cabbage".

Preceded in death by siblings Denise Ann Kapusta-Gray of Normal, Illinois and Kenneth Kapusta of Batavia, Illinois.

Alan's well-being was entrusted to his care team ("Allen's Angels") at The Care Plan <https://www.the-care-plan.com/>.

Graveside service with Catholic rites of final committal, 10am Monday, November 11, St. Boniface Cemetery, 4901 N Clark St, Chicago, 60640.
