

Anthony Edmond Woods

December 13, 1960 - June 3, 2023

Anthony Edmond Woods, “Tony”, 62, of Chicago’s Rogers Park neighborhood, passed away due to a sudden cardiac event, June 3, 2023.

After graduating from Kilmer Elementary, Tony played football (wide-receiver) at Sullivan High School and was also on Chicago’s All-Area team. A football scholarship took him to Michigan State University in East Lansing, where he played for the Spartans and earned his Bachelor of Science in Social Sciences. He worked as a commodities broker, most recently at International Futures Group, Inc.

Youngest son of Georgia Bee Taylor and the late Gordon Woods, Sr.

Loving father of Anthony Louis Chessher (Jasmine Williams) and Max Gordon Chessher.

Very proud grandfather (“Grandpa Tony”) of Winter, Autumn, Blossom, Malaya, and Amiyah.

Dear brother of Gordon Woods, Jr. and Vada Vernee Woods (the late Ann Morris)

He is also survived by his former partner and dear friend Michele Denise

Chessher, and by his best friend from high school, John Tidwell.

Family is gathering privately on Father's Day, Sunday June 18, 2023.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Tony's passing, Vada. I remember Tony well and remember watching many football games at Sullivan. Tony had a beautiful smile, laughed a lot and was always a gentleman. I pray that the Lord will embrace you and provide you with strength and grace during this difficult time.
My sincerest condolences-
