September 20, 1923 - December 29, 2024

Avis Weber (nee Shores), 101, of Virginia Beach, Virginia, passed away December 29, 2024.

Born in South Dakota, raised on the north side of Chicago, Avis graduated from Senn High School and went right into the workforce. Her dad insisted she pay her own “room and board” under his roof. Avis was a most accomplished seamstress.

Avis was a beautiful woman and shared companionship and love with many over her 101 years. She married Chicago Public School teacher and musician Bob Weber and later connected with her high school sweetheart George Ayers. They enjoyed many good years together in Florida and Virginia. Her noted happiest years were Door County, Wisconsin and then in Florida with George, her cat, and his parrot.

Avis and her cousin Judy Corbeille travelled together and maintained monthly dinners until she moved to Florida. Sandy Haines became a close friend and companion.

Avis was stepsister to Shary Shores and the late Sandy Copp and the aunt of Kristi Copp Farris, Kelly, and Kim. Preceded in death by husband Bob Weber, partner George Ayers, and parents Walter and Leona Shores.

The family is honoring Avis' wishes for a private cremation. Future burial at West Lawn Memorial Park, Racine, Wisconsin.
