

Faustina Amankwa

February 6, 1974 - April 17, 2025

Faustina Amankwa, 51, passed unexpectedly but peacefully in her sleep April 17, 2025 at home in Chicago's Rogers Park neighborhood.

Born in Koforidua, Ghana, Faustina graduated from Aburi Girls' High School and earned her BA in Ghanaian language and religion from University of Cape Coast. It was at university that she met her husband.

In 2007, the couple came to the United States. Faustina worked as a nanny, where she was deeply devoted to the care of children. She developed deep bonds with her clients and was very trustworthy.

Faustina liked to share ideas and discuss the Word of God. She worshipped and loved to sing and cook.

She was a dedicated volunteer in her church, and very supportive of her husband's role as a minister at House of Prayer for All Nations in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood. She sacrificed much and had no complaints. She was thoughtful, caring, prayerful, and happy. Faustina knew that the source of everything was her relationship to the Lord.

Beloved wife of Abraham Ayensu-Peters, devoted mother of Nana Aba Egyirba Ayensu-Peters and Ebo Ayensu-Peters.

Loving daughter of Juliana Yeboah and the late Emmanuel Amankwa.

Dear sister of Jones Asante, the late Dora, Gladys, the late Grace, Akosua, Beatrice, and Isaac.

Celebration of Life, Friday, April 25, 10am at House of Prayer for All Nations, 4631 N. Broadway, Chicago, 60640.

Private burial at Mt. Auburn Cemetery to follow.

Arrangements by Inclusive Funeral Care, 773-318-1305 or www.InclusiveFuneralCare.com.

“ Abraham and I have known each other for over thirty years. We both attended the same high school, St. Charles Secondary Minor Seminary in Tamale, Ghana. My family got to know Faustina 8 years ago when I reconnected with Abraham in Chicago. Fausti, as she was affectionately called, was a loving and caring mother. Their son Ebow and our son Joshua are friends and attend the same school. Fausti and the family always paid us a visit and our children exchanged gifts during festivities like Christmas, Easter and during birthday celebrations. Fausti and Abraham always picked my son to and from school whenever my family members were not available. Fausti, this Easter, we did not get the chance to meet as you exited. We will truly miss you. May your soul rest in peace. Until we meet again

*A sweet Angel 🙏 is gone to be with the Lord!
Rest well my sweet and darling sister!
You were my roommate at UCC since 2008, the bond we had was so strong!
You've been my big sister since then and I've always looked up to you !
You thought me soo much about unconditional Love❤️ , forgiveness, resilience,...most important of all, developing a personal relationship with God!
I miss you so much
Damerifa due due
I Love you so much ❤️ ❤️ ❤️
Rest well with the Lord!
The Lord has wipped away all your tears!!!
This world is not our home!*

Faustina was my grandchildren's nanny and there is no one that could have lives them or cared for them as much as Faustina! She was caring, loving and kind. I am so sorry to hear of her passing but sure that she was welcomed in heaven when she arrived. Bless you Faustina.
