

Helen Rogal

April 18, 1936 - March 29, 2026

Helen R. Rogal (nee Moran), passed away peacefully on March 29, 2026.

Helen was born April 18, 1936, firstborn child of Joseph and Mary Moran in Waterbury, Connecticut. She graduated from Albertus Magnus College in New Haven and John Marshall College of Law in Chicago. Helen was a well-known and well-respected domestic relations lawyer in the Chicago area for many years. She was very involved with the Chicago Bar Association and served on several committees including participating in judicial electoral evaluations. Helen was active in Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity and a regular at the weekly lunch get-togethers.

Helen was a member of the Chicago Literary Club, where she presented numerous original papers, including one in collaboration with her journalist son, Brian. As a long-time member of the Forest Trails Hiking Club, Helen was a serious hiker, venturing out in all kinds of weather with those friends. Every year, there were serious hikes in Wisconsin such as a challenging marathon-length trek along the Ice Age Trail and a complete circular hike around Lake Geneva. She spent many happy days at Chicago's Montrose Harbor on her sailboat and at the yacht club.

Helen loved to travel and has been to all seven of the world's continents, travelling sometimes with family and sometimes with friends. She is survived by her sons, David and Brian, her life partner, Craig Cooper, and her sister, Patricia Cutonilli. She was preceded in death by her baby brother, Thomas.
