

Jeffrey Scott Giles

February 12, 1963 - February 10, 2024

Jeffrey Scott Giles, 60, of Arlington Heights, formerly of Chicago's Rogers Park, Anderson, Lakeview, & Austin, passed away unexpectedly (after a perfectly normal day shopping for a new car and making dinner) on February 10, 2024.

Born in Chicago, Jeff was very proud of his family's Southern roots. Jeff worked for many years in marketing research and day trading. He loved Donna Summer and could sing all the lyrics to "Lush Life". He loved watching "Mysteries at the Museum" and other educational TV, including the Weather Channel. Jeff was intrigued and excited by life's simple pleasures – Mother Nature, his garden, tracking weather, birds and their unique calls, and growing tomatoes on his back porch. He was a Democrat and volunteered for Obama's presidential campaign. He was an excellent cook and truly enjoyed the science of baking.

Beloved husband of George Levin for 12 years, loving brother of Joe, dear uncle of Dalton. Dearest brother-in-law of Denise Lara and son-in-law of Eunice (the late Manny) Levin. Cherished nephew of Phyllis (Sam) Canerday. He leaves behind three dogs: Roscoe the dachshund/corgi, Russell the dachshund/min-pin, and Riley the chihuahua.

We went to Leslie Lewis school together and then Edwin G. Foreman high school together. I remember that he lived with his grandmother back then. Also he was proud of learning Spanish. I did communicate with him before he passed. I will miss him. REST IN PEACE JEFF.
