“ Kristina, I wish we had more time. Knowing you since Mather, then later in life living in the same neighborhood running with the same crowd, just wasn't enough. Your smiling face and kind heart will stay with me always.

“ Kristina may you rest in peace. I met you at your wedding in 1985 when you married my great-nephew Ken Del Valle Jr. My sister Dolly kept me informed on what was happening in Chicago with your growing family. I visited Chicago again several years later and we all met at Touhy Park. Your sons and adorable grandson Aydin will miss you! You have now found Peace and rest. ❤️ Great Aunt Yvonne
