

Krystow Grajdura

February 12, 1980 - November 6, 2024

Krystow Grajdura, “Kris”, 43, of Harwood Heights, recently of Chicago’s Belmont Cragin neighborhood, passed away unexpectedly November 6, 2024.

Cherished baby brother of Elizabeth Gradjura Garcia. Dearest father-figure, best friend, and uncle of Angela Morales. Preceded in death by parents Rozalia and Michal Grajdura.

Krystow graduated from Ridgewood Community High School in Norridge and Triton College nursing program. After his schooling, he chose to work as a produce clerk for Dominick’s and Mariano’s in Park Ridge.

Kris was extremely thoughtful, soft-spoken, and gentle. He was playful and good natured, known for putting a smile on the faces of those around him. Deeply spiritual, Kris studied and practiced holistic healing, constantly reading and learning new practices. He believed in energy, chakras, crystals, and tea. He was passionate about everything he did. Constantly searching for higher power, acceptance, rebirth, and human enlightenment.

Contributions may be made to the family to offset final expenses, send donations by Zelle to 863-397-4693.

Services are being planned, please check back to this website for updates.

Arrangements by Inclusive Funeral Care, 773-318-1305 or www.InclusiveFuneralCare.com.

Tribute Wall

“ 2 files added to the album Memories Album

Team Inclusive Funeral Care - November 09, 2024 at 10:11 PM