“Lois was a kind, loving person. We were neighbors, and buddies sharing fellowship through good times and tougher ones, and many meals with laughter. I remember her nickname, Little Lois. She was small in stature but big-hearted. I cat-sat for her early on, then came to know her love for Lambchop and Sheri Lewis later. Tom and I will miss celebrating her annual birthday dinner but we'll also remember her fondly every February.

“I miss Lois. The air around my heart is still. Lois came into my world in my search for sobriety. She grounded me. She then became my good neighbor and friend for many years. Always a smile and an honest “how are you doing?”. I was lucky to know her. RIP Lois 💙

“So sorry for your loss... Lois was one of the first neighbors I met at The Waterford. She was a lovely person and always had a treat for my dog. Lola would see her and Lambchop from across the street and jump up and down in excitement. Lois was such a nice woman and will be missed.

“ Lois was a wonderful neighbor and friend, and she was so sweet to my dog, always had a pouch of treats at the ready. Lois and her tiny Lambchop were probably the first neighbors I met during my "covid move-in" and couldn't have been more welcoming. I've missed seeing her the past few months, and I'm so sorry that there wasn't a better outcome. Rest in peace, Lois. I know you're surrounded by all the pups. xoxo Lisa Sheehy
