Naomi Lopez, aka “Nomie” and “Noma”, 52, lifelong resident of Chicago’s Pilsen neighborhood, passed away gently, surrounded by family, December 9, 2025.

Naomi graduated from Benito Juarez High School and as a teenager, she could often be found breakdancing on Oakley. Naomi worked very hard while raising her first two sons, including a stint at her cousins’ business Smart Tech. With the birth of her third son, she became a stay-at-home mother. Naomi had some hard times in life, but always managed to have fun, and to shine brightly. She was a great dancer and loved house and Spanish music. Promontory Point was a special place for Naomi and her youngest son.

In 2023 Naomi was diagnosed with ovarian cancer and summoned the courage to leave a difficult marriage. Although raised Catholic, she embarked upon a rich spiritual life at Spirit of God Fellowship Church in South Holland.

Devoted Mother of Julio Ceasar (fiancée Carina Espinosa) Lopez, II, Antonio Felipe (partner Cecelia “Cece” Gaspar) Lopez, and Joshua Roy Lopez.

She is survived by siblings Homero “Homie” Figueroa, Vanessa Moreno-Negrete, and Leo, Manuel “Manny”, and Carlos Lopez; her father Margarito (partner Martha) Correa Lopez of Hammond, IN; her life-long friend Ruby Longoria and so many others—just too many to name here; and also by Vader, her black lab/Doberman mix, who now lives with Julio and Carina.

Naomi is welcomed into heaven by her mother Lydia Figueroa Lopez, her grandmother Sally Figueroa, and the family pet, Chef the pitbull.

The family has chosen a private traditional cremation.

Memorial visitation, Saturday, December 20, 9am (mass begins 10am) at St. Paul’s Catholic Church, 2127 W 22nd Pl, Chicago, IL 60608. Reception to follow.

Naomi Lopez, también conocida como “Nomie” y “Noma”, de 52 años, residente de toda la vida del barrio de Pilsen en Chicago, falleció serenamente rodeada de su familia el 9 de diciembre de 2025.

Naomi se graduó de la Escuela Preparatoria Benito Juárez y, durante su adolescencia, solía bailar breakdance en Oakley. Trabajó muy duro mientras criaba a sus dos primeros hijos, incluyendo un tiempo en el negocio de sus primos, Smart Tech. Con el nacimiento de su tercer hijo, se convirtió en ama de casa. Naomi pasó por momentos difíciles en la vida, pero siempre lograba divertirse y brillar con luz propia. Era una gran bailarina y le encantaba la música house y la música latina. Promontory Point era un lugar especial para Naomi y su hijo menor.

En 2023, Naomi fue diagnosticada con cáncer de ovario y encontró el valor para dejar un matrimonio difícil. Aunque fue criada en la fe católica, emprendió una rica vida espiritual en la Iglesia Spirit of God Fellowship en South Holland.

Madre devota de Julio César (prometida Carina Espinosa) López II, Antonio Felipe (pareja Cecelia "Cece" Gaspar) López y Joshua Roy López.

Le sobreviven sus hermanos Homero "Homie" Figueroa, Vanessa Moreno-Negrete, y Leo, Manuel "Manny" y Carlos López; su padre Margarito (pareja Martha) Correa López de Hammond, Indiana; su amiga de toda la vida Ruby Longoria y muchos otros, demasiados para nombrarlos aquí; y también Vader, su perro mestizo de labrador y dóberman, que ahora vive con Julio y Carina.

Naomi es recibida en el cielo por su madre Lydia Figueroa López, su abuela Sally Figueroa y la mascota de la familia, Chef, el perro de pitbull.

La familia ha optado por una cremación tradicional privada.

Velatorio conmemorativo: sábado 20 de diciembre, 9:00 a. m. (la misa comienza a las 10:00 a. m.) en la Iglesia Católica St. Paul, 2127 W 22nd Pl, Chicago, IL 60608. Recepción a continuación.
