

Norma Lee Ingram

February 15, 1947 - December 26, 2023

Norma Lee Ingram, 76, retired caretaker, formerly of the Robert Taylor Homes, passed away unexpectedly but peacefully at home in Calumet Park, Illinois.

She will be deeply missed by her children Anita (Johnny) Ingram and Milton Eugene (Yolanda Michelle Davis) Ingram; grandchildren Patrice, Christy, Devante and Malik Ingram, Andria Childress, Milton Jr, , and Mia Ingram; step-granddaughter Amari Green; great-grandchildren Jeremy and Ikara; and a host of others including her lifelong best friend of Anita “Nene” Boyd, for whom she named her daughter.

Preceded in death by parents Mary Ingram and Mitchell Polluck and siblings Milton, Mildred and Charlise (“Sister”) Ingram and Roena Wesley.

Born in Chicago, Norma attended Wendell Phillips High School in Bronzeville before heading straight out into the workforce. Norma clerked in the office of Congressman Ralph Metcalfe while raising her family in the Robert Taylor Homes. She worked as a caretaker professionally for two decades and then for her mother and also all of her siblings at the end of their lives. A small woman with a big heart, she was also a straight-talker who spoke her mind.

A celebration of life is being planned. Please check back to this website for further information as it becomes available.

“ Norma, we shared a loving sisterly friendship that began and lasted over 6 decades. During those years we shared so many funny stories...starting with dumb boyfriends and then later about our kids and grandkids. We laughed and teased each other a lot, sometimes we called on the phone multiple times a day...just to share a funny story...you and your jovial sarcasm! I will miss hearing your voice, but I'll hold onto your kindheartedness, the good times we had and stories we shared.

Soooo, for now my dear friend, rest well...until we meet again!

Love, Nene
