October 13, 1941 - August 14, 2024

Peter Grosse, 82, of Chicago's Uptown neighborhood, passed away August 14, 2024, during an aortic procedure at Glenbrook Hospital in Glenview.

Born and raised in Halberstadt, a small town outside of Berlin, Germany, Peter graduated high school, attended trade school in Germany, and then was off to the United States for work. He worked in the tool-and-die industry molding metal to produce medical equipment.

Peter was a very adventurous soul. He enjoyed skiing, camping, biking, white water rafting, and sky diving. He and his partner of 23 years, Elena Ghilea, traveled the world and explored over 100 countries.

Throughout his travels, he would seek out others with the same adventurous, optimistic, and youthful traits. He was able to make and foster many friendships around the world.

Cherished partner of Elena Ghilea, devoted father of Amy (Scott) Bjork, stepfather of Teri (Cliff) Pahl, proud grandfather of Braden and Joanna Bjork, and uncle of Annette and Sabine (Dieter).

Preceded in death by parents Herbert Richard Kurt and Gerturd Martha Grosse (nee Lindner), and by sister Monika (Manfred).
