“ I've known Chachi for 25 years, and since I've known her Bob has always been there. He was a great husband, who had some awesome adventures and made great memories with his wife, Bea. I always loved hearing about their trips all over the place. He was an amazing stepfather to my best friend and her siblings and all of his grandchildren, and a consistent and reliable figure in all of their lives. I know his loss will be felt deeply, and I pray that you find comfort in remembering the beautiful memories that you've built and celebrating his life. My heart, thoughts, and most of all, my love go out to all of you.
