“ Ryan was a kind and greatly loved person. We used to work together at The Grafton Pub in Chicago & he was a favourite of staff & customers. I left Chicago in 2018 but we kept in touch, throughout his illness he was the same upbeat wickedly funny & smart bloke we all know and love. Thank you for your friendship Ryan love always.

“ Ryan worked with me selling cannabis until the day he died. During the time I knew him Ryan taught me courage in the face of his health battles and to use laughter as a balm against the pain he felt every day. He is deeply missed at our store and in our lives. He will forever be in our hearts. I share my deepest condolences with you all for this loss. May memories of Ryan always put a smile on our faces and be a source of joy in our worlds.
