“Dear friends and family, please accept my deepest sympathies on the loss of your son, brother, father, partner and friend.

Unfortunately words fall well short at this sad time.

There just isn't anything anyone can say that can un-break the heart suffering the loss of a beautiful boy like Sal no matter how perfect or how kind those words are.

You all are in my thoughts and I carry you in my heart.

Find peace in knowing that it is what it is, perfectly poetic as Sal would have wanted his passing to be and just breathe through it when grief has you in its clutches.

Those who truly care for you and share your loss will wish you nothing but peace, love, and comfort.

I hope you find the strength you need in the presence of loving family and supportive friends.

I only knew him to be perfectly himself. I met him through Butch many years ago and got closer to him when we lived down the street from each other in Bridgeport.

He worked with me on a number of projects and took the stage at my 40th birthday blowout with 10 other musicians and blew the joint up.

There were meals, drinks and cigars to be sure but his calls were the kicker. I spoke to him when he got the new gig and he was like a little kid. Over the moon.

One of a kind. Full marks. A good man.

I found it difficult to breathe hearing the news of his untimely departure from the earthly realm but found comfort knowing he left just as he had hoped. At peace.

He will be remembered lovingly by many and hopefully, this will be the last sadness for those who he carried in his heart.

“ I’ve knew Sal before he was married. He was a strong and gifted drummer, amazing carpenter and a top notch chef. His raspy voice and laugh I can hear now. He helped paint my first apartment and put many thing together for me. I’m in shock and awe in his passing. Lord bring comfort to his family. Love them mightily during their time of lost of someone so loved. Amen.
