“Lourdes and Sara, my prayers to you both and the rest of the Lim family. I will miss him making me laugh and sharing many stories with me. Then he would tell someone, "Can you tell her to stop bothering me?" He was a character. He always shared how his dad instilled good work ethics in him from a small boy and how it stayed with him all his life. He was truly a dedicated worker. I will miss him.

“ Lim, you were my favorite Chinito! I am still in disbelief and saddened that I won't see you anymore. I can't believe that I'm actually going to miss those crazy jokes you always cracked, or you saying how you would walk me down the isle...you would drop whatever you were doing to drop off whatever we needed. You were the best and won't be forgotten. I had been wanting to reach out to you but between my memory and everyday distractions, I never made that call or sent that text and I regret that so much. You were always so proud of your daughter and wife and quick to share stories about them. Rest easy my friend, until we meet again.

“ I choose this Red candle because it symbolize: Power, Passion & Positive Energy. For the years I've known Mr. Lim he was always working hard, being positive and sharing that positive energy with others. He share so many different stories knowing the love he has for his Daughter & Family. He knew the right things to say, even when he saw you liking down or not yourself. I'm glad to have met a great gentleman and hard working individual. I want to say Thank you Lim for all the jokes and positive talks. You'll be truly miss Lim. Prayers & Condolences to your Family.

“ Stephen Lim was one of the hardest working men that I have ever met in my life. He was humorous and always found a way to make me smile or laugh even during some challenging times. He was surely a light that God allowed to be shared with the world and I am blessed to say that I had the opportunity to meet him along the way. May God bless his family and friends as we learn to accept the things that we cannot change. Mr. Lim your light will continue to shine on the Department of Finance and those whose paths you crossed for eternity. You will be greatly missed by us all...

Sincerely,
